Thanksgiving Committee Meets to Make Plans

REPRESENTATIVES CAME TO ORPHANAGE ON SEPT. 28TH FOR CONFERENCE

Forty Thousand Booklets Will Be Published and Distributed to Churches

AIM AT '37 TOTAL

Committee Members Invited to Visit Barium on Nov. 7th

Synod's Thanksgiving Committee met at the Orphanage on Tuesday, September 28th, to make plans for the emphasis to be placed upon the 1937 Thanksgiving Offering. In addition to the decision to follow the usual procedure of the past several years it was decided to set Sunday, November 7th, as a day when all members of the nine Presbyterian committees would be invited to visit Barium Springs as a group, which would bring together well over 100 committee-men, who will be responsible for seeing that the Orphanage is effectively presented in all churches during the Thanksgiving season.

The motivating reason behind this decision to have the committees visit the Orphanage for one day was the effectiveness of such a visit made by Kings Mountain Presbytery's committee last fall. The chairman of that Presbytery called a meeting of his committee at Barium, and individual members were so filled with enthusiasm and fortified with such "ammunition" that it was felt a similar reaction would follow the visit of all committee members to the Home.

It was also decided by the committee that 40,000 booklets would be published and distributed to the churches on the basis of one-half the membership. There are now 83,005 Presbyterians in the Synod, and it was felt that approximately half that number of booklets would be sufficient. Material for this is now in preparation. On the back of each Presbytery's allotment will be the names of the committee from that Presbytery, as was true in the 1936 pamphlets. The chairmen were asked to urge churches to send delegations to Barium between now and Thanksgiving.

No definite goal was set by the committee, except to make every effort to reach the sum of $51,338.58 that was contributed to the Orphanage last fall as Thanksgiving Offering. It was pointed out that 53.7% of all that Synod

MANY VISITORS COMING TO BARIUM THIS FALL

Delegations Arriving from All Directions and Most All of the Presbyteries

"Visitors here, visitors there; visitors, visitors, everywhere!" That could very easily be the refrain at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs these days, for visitors are coming to the Orphanage from the north, from the south, from the east, and from the west. And, officials at Barium hope that the number of delegations and visitors are going to increase instead of diminish as the months go by.

A few years ago, summertime was the period when most of the people visited the Orphanage, but the trend has changed to fall, with the largest number of visitors arriving during the months of September, October and November. This is probably due to the fact that these three months precede the Thanksgiving Offering the latter part of November, and the people want to come and see and get firsthand information about the work to which they are contributing.

In the past month or more, delegations have come to the Orphanage from churches in five of the nine Presbyteries of Synod, and this doesn't include the Regents who were at Barium for the semi-annual meeting the latter part of September, or those who constituted Synod's Thanksgiving committee and who met at the Orphanage on September 28th to outline plans for the fall.

The most recent delegation was a group of ten young ladies from a Bible Class in the Fuller Memorial Sunday School at Durham, in Granville Presbytery. This class has "adopted" one of the children at the Orphanage, and has pledged itself to send $50.00 this year for that child's support. On one day in October, there were 24 people here from Tenth Avenue Church in Mecklenburg Presbytery, and 15 from Albemarle Church, in the same Presbytery.

On successive days there were delegations at Barium from two churches in Kings Mountain Presbytery. Four carloads of folk came from Armstrong Memorial Church in Gastonia one day, and five carloads were here from Cherryville the following day. Later on, two carloads of men visited Barium from Armstrong Memorial Church.

Good News

There's a powerful lot of good news to be revealed in this issue of The Messenger, and here goes:

Fairmont Auxiliary in Fayetteville Presbytery made a quilt and instead of sending it to Barium it was sold, and brought the munificent sum of $26.40, said amount being forwarded to the Orphanage. Covenant Auxiliary, in the same Presbytery, did this last spring, it will be recalled, and the Covenant quilt brought $25.00.

Group No. 2, of Albemarle Presbyterial, devoted its special offering to Barium when it met at Falkland, and it amounted to $13.75.

Bethany Auxiliary, in Concord Presbytery, gave the Orphanage $4.00 in 1936-1937 as its regular support, but decided that it would make it $1.00 a month in 1937-1938. Five of the $12.00 have already been sent.

McKinnon Sunday School, in Concord Presbytery, has re-instituted the Offering-per-month plan, and has sent Barium $8.14. It will give the third Sunday responses.

Mount Holly Sunday School, in Kings Mountain Presbytery, in October sent Barium a special Offering of $20.36.

Shoot in the good news; it's a pleasure to record it.

PICK-UP IN RECEIPTS NOT REALIZED IN SEPT

Synod Had Shown a Decrease of $593.31 in the First Half of 1937-1938

Well, well, well! The comment on the September table of receipts must, of necessity, have the tone that has been applied to the comments for the past three months. The reason for this is that a $267.64 decrease was evident when last month's income from Synod was compared with that for September, 1936. Decreases in July and August together had totaled $225.31. All of that, and more, occurred in July, August and September, for there had been an increase in the first quarter.

However, this comment can be slightly tempered with optimism today, for the income from Synod in the first 15 days of October was just a little more than the $3,218.29 that came to Barium in all of the 30 days in September. Last October's total was $4,354.29 from Synod, and unless something radically happens, the receipts for this October should substantially surpass $4,354.29.

The decrease in the past six months is pretty well distributed throughout the nine Presbyteries. Only two of them were ahead of the per capita giving on September, 30, 1936, and these were fractional advances. On the "up" side were Albemarle Presbytery with two-tenths of a cent increase, and Mecklenburg Presbytery with nine-tenths of a cent.

On the "down" side were the following Presbyteries and the amount of the decrease: Kings Mountain, 4.2 cents; Orange 3.1 cents; Granville, 2.9 cents; Concord, 2.2 cents; Fayetteville, 1.2 cents; Winston-Salem 1.1 cents, and Wilmington, four-tenths of a cent. Synod's decrease was 1.2 cents.

Winston-Salem, Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, Orange and Wilmington Presbyteries occupied the same positions in the rating the past month as the month before. Berths held by each, respectively, were first, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh. Albemarle and Concord (Continued On Page Four)

N. C. ORPHANAGE ASSN. MET HERE FOR ONE DAY

More Than 75 People Attended Discussions from 18 Institutions

More than 75 representatives from 18 of the 30 orphanages or child placing institutions in North Carolina attended a one-day conference at the Presbyterian Orphans' home at Barium Springs, on Tuesday, September 21st. They discussed problems relating to the child at the morning session, and spent the afternoon period largely in discussing social legislation regarding dependent children and its relationship to the orphanages.

Rev. J. H. Gruver, superintendent of Mountain orphanage at Black Mountain, was named president of the North Carolina Orphanage association for the coming year; Chas. D. Johnson, superintendent of Christian orphanage at Elon college was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Octavia Evans of the Wright Refuge of Durham, was chosen as secretary of the association. The annual meeting will be held at Catholic orphanage in Raleigh next September.

Morning addresses, centering around home-like atmosphere and appreciation, were made by Mr. Gruver, the retiring vice-president, E. R. Garrett, superintendent of Memorial Industrial school at Winston-Salem, and W. E. Pennington, superintendent of the Pythian home at Clayton.

In the afternoon, Misses Emma Ashton and Gladys Shuford, representatives of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, were leaders of a discussion on the Social Security act and the survey that is being made. Growing out of these presentations was a discussion period on the part of the orphanages, with Superintendent I. G. Greer of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville presiding.

Institutions represented at this annual conference were the Baptist orphanage, Thomasville; Children's Home, Winston-Salem; Methodist orphanage, and Catholic orphanage, Raleigh; National Orphans' home, Lexington; Alexander schools, Union Mills; Thompson orphanage and Alexander home, Charlotte; Mountain orphanage, Black Mountain; Pythian orphanage, Clayton; South Mountain institute, near Morganton; Grandfather home at Banner Elk; Appalachian schools, Penland; Colored Orphanage of North Carolina, Oxford; Memorial Industrial school, Winston-Salem; Wright Refuge, Durham, and Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs.

REGENTS HELD SESSION AT BARIUM LAST MONTH WITH 13 IN ATTENDANCE

Rev. Eugene Alexander, Manchester, Made President in Organization of Board

SEVERAL NEW ONES

Six Regents Have Been Named Since the Spring Meeting

The semi-annual meeting of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home was held at Barium Springs on Monday night, September 27th, with 13 of the 20 members of the Board in attendance. Two other Regents came the following morning, but the Board adjourned Monday night. However, these Regents were at Barium Tuesday to attend the meeting of Synod's Thanksgiving Offering committee.

Rev. W. M. Currie, Belmont, was retiring president of the Board, but since his term had expired, Rev. Eugene Alexander, Manchester, convened the meeting as vice-president. In the organization of the Board, the retiring vice-president was selected as president of the Regents; W. B. Bradford, Charlotte, was named vice-president to succeed Mr. Alexander, and Mrs. W. E. Graham, Graham, was the choice for secretary to succeed Mrs. Z. V. Turlington, Mooresville, who had acted in that capacity for a number of years.

Semi-annual reports were made by the superintendent and treasurer of the orphanage, Jos. B. Johnston and Ernest Milton, respectively, and the reports were received as information. Several committees made verbal reports, but since five members of the Board retired last spring and one resigned, the committees were disorganized and full reports could not be given. New committees will have detailed and written reports when the Board re-assembles for the spring session.

Mrs. J. A. Hartness, Raleigh, and Mrs. J. M. Walker, Charlotte, attended their first meeting of the Board, succeeding Mrs. I. F. Hill, Durham, and Mrs. J. E. Driscoll, Charlotte, respectively. Mrs. George Norfleet, Winston-Salem, successor to Mrs. J. R. Finley, North Wilkesboro, and W. H. Holderness, Greensboro, succeeding Rev. W. M. Baker, Mebane, were both at the Orphanage on Tuesday and attended the Thanksgiving committee meeting. Rev. George M. Matthis, Durham, and (Continued On Page Four)

News About Alumni

In listing the alumni enrolled at various institutions for the coming scholastic session, the name of Dewey Barnhill was omitted, through error, in the list of those attending Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. That makes nine boys and two Orphanage girls at that institution.

Neely Ford was a visitor to Barium recently. She was here to attend the conference of the North Carolina Orphanage Association, and represented Grandfather Orphanage at Banner Elk, where she is now a matron. It will be recalled that she was connected with the local Orphanage for a number of years.

It was Home-Coming Day for Children's Home when Barium met the Methodists on the latter's gridiron, but quite a few Barium boys and girls made it their Home-Coming, too, in one sense of the word. Among those seen at the game were Ray Norman, Dewey Barnhill, Ben Morrow, Albert Cumbe, Harry East, Laura Smith and Marion McCall. Miss Ruth Johnson, a former teacher at Barium, was right there, too.

Lorena Clark is teaching at Celeste Henkel school, about six miles from Barium this year. She taught at Orrum high school, Orrum, N. C. for the first two years after she graduated from Flora Macdonald College.

Charlie Sears is working at Thomasville and is assisting Ralph McMillan, former Barium recreational director, in training the football team at Thomasville high. Yes, you guessed it. The backfield had been assigned to Charlie as his proteges.

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

Schol has started and we are very glad because we like to go to school. We have gotten our first report cards and we are proud because we didn't have any failures last month.

A friend of our matron brought us some magazines last week and we are having a fine time looking at them.

We went to a carnival last Wednesday and enjoyed it very much. We rode on the hobby horses, swings, and ferris wheel and had a good time riding on them.

We have been playing football every evening when we come back from school. When the big team played the other day, we played at the half and had a good time.

Your friends,

—Leland Rogers
—Stanley Smith.

BABY COTTAGE

Seems as if time goes like lightning. Since we wrote last lots has happened.

We sure are enjoying the football games. Our first game was with Mooresville, and we won. Last Friday, while we were at the ball field, one friend brought us some candy and another friend brought us some peanuts and we enjoyed them very much.

About two weeks ago the Orphanage conference met with us. Several visited us and we sure were glad to have them. We are always glad to have visitors.

Mama McGirt and the big girls gave us a fish fry and we truly had nice things to eat. We won't take time to tell you the menu because we are sure your mouth would water. We certainly did enjoy it. And most of all, we want to thank the Junior department of Rowland church for sending us the money for the fish fry.

Mr. Bullock, the owner of the fair amusements at Troutman, invited us down to the fair. We sure had a grand time riding on the ponies, Ferris wheel and the swings. After we had finished riding he set us up to candy and Mama McGirt bought us popcorn. The whole afternoon was a pleasure.

The Board of Regents met last week, and we are always glad to see them come. We had a few to visit us.

Several children have had visits from their parents. Kenneth Mae Hugh's mother came, the father of Helen, Hilda and Paul Barnes came and Esau Davis' mother. They enjoyed seeing them lots.

We are having supper in the dining room on Sunday nights and we think everyone is well pleased over it.

Kate and Billy Drum have come to live with us and we are mighty glad to have them.

Virginia Presnell has moved to Annie Louise and we miss her very much but know she is happy living with the little Annie Louise girls.

Several of the children have gotten clothing boxes and they are very pretty. We appreciate them lots.

Our big sisters went to see "Prisoner of Zinda". They enjoyed it lots.

We are getting along nicely in our school work since we have gotten settled down. We have received our first report cards and two of our Babies go to the show for making the highest averages in the first grade.

This is Station B. C. signing off until next month.

—Babies.

RUMPLE HALL

Hi Folks:

Here we are again. It has been a long time since we wrote last. We have a lot of news for you this time.

Everyone is back from their vacations and started into school again. I guess everyone is glad.

We are all very glad football season has started. Our first game was with Mooresville, the score was 34 to 0 in Barium's favor. The next one was with Charlotte and they beat Barium, 7 to 0. The third game was with Salisbury, the score was 19 to 0. The last game we have had was with Children's Home and that was a tie, 0 to 0.

We want to thank the ones who invited us to the carnival, and I am sure every one enjoyed it.

We have two new girls to live with us. They are Bertha Lee Broom, from Hunterville, and Lula Bell Hall, who has come up from Howard cottage.

Three of our girls made the honor roll this month. They are Betty Whittle, Sara Parcell, and Emma Eudy. We hope to have more next month.

Our matron, Miss Stevenson, is giving a prize each month to the one who keeps her room the nicest. For September, Glenn Lindsay, Sara Parcell, and Myrtle Mills got it.

We want to thank the ones who invited us to Davidson to see the football game. We certainly enjoyed it.

Annie Sue Wilson had a visit from her sisters.

Louise Martin had a visit from her mother.

Miss Andrews and some of the senior department, gave a "Candle Light Service" Sunday night, we all enjoyed it very much.

We are sorry to say that one of our girls, Glenn Lindsay, had her appendix removed October 7th. We hope to have her with us again soon.

So long until next time.

Your news reporters,
—Margaret Presnell
—Louise Everett.

LOTTIE WALKER

Did you hear someone say we have had a lot of visitors on our campus? I should say not. Why, they're home folks! We have enjoyed having the State Orphanage Conference here. Come again, worked for a brief period in Charlotte, and has now landed in Salisbury.

Harry East is now a linotype operator for the Journal-Sentinel at Winston-Salem. Harry worked for a year or more at Hopewell, Va.

More facts about last year's graduates: Robert Gallyon and Willard Drye are both in Charlotte. Robert is working with Glasgow-Allison Company and Willard is with the Firestone Tire Company. George Faison is connected with the Playhouse Theatre in Statesville. Lucy Bryant is working in a store in Tarboro. Fred Elliott is with the Duncan Plumbing Company at Mooresville. Ray Clendenin is a linotype operator on the staff of The Statesville Daily. (That makes two Barium boys operating linotype machines with the same concern, for Guy East is also with The Daily).

Charles Gallyon and Ed. Flowers, both of whom attended Appalachian Teachers College at Boone during 1936-1937, are now working in Statesville. Charles is with Fraley's, and Ed. is working in the office of J. C. Steele & Sons.

Mrs. W. H. Hobbs, formerly Helen Briley, has changed her address. (Continued On Page Four) folks! We also always look forward to the Regents and enjoyed having them here also.

One month of our school is gone. Time has passed so quickly that we hardly know what has happened. We hope to have a big Honor Roll.

Minnie Lou Turner came back to spend the day with us. She is in Clinton, N. C. now.

Bertha McKee has also been back and has gone to Washington. D. C. How's the big city, Bertha?

Margaret Cook was here Sunday afternoon. She is staying in Salisbury.

Margaret and Louise Wilson were here for a week-end. Also Lucile Burney. They all live in Charlotte.

All of our girls seem to be football fans. Every one enjoys the Davidson games as well as the games we have here. Here's "Luck" boys—take it.

In our Home Economics department, which has been re-established, we are busy making our uniforms and we are also canning late fruits and vegetables. We want to thank the ones who have helped us buy the necessary things for this department.

We were invited to the Playhouse Theater to see, "The Prisoner of Zinda." It was real good and we thank Mr. Sams a lot.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING STATISTICS AVAILABLE108 Churches Gave Best Offerings in 12 Years Last Thanksgiving

To the right on this page and on page four of this issue of The Messenger are the names of 510 churches and mission points in the Synod of North Carolina which have made Thanksgiving Offerings for the Orphanage in 1935 and 1936; the amount of the '35 and '36 responses; the amount of the best Thanksgiving Offering that has been contributed since the fall of 1925, and the year in which the high-water mark was reached by each church or mission point.

If the name of your church or mission point does not appear in the columns devoted to the tabulation it is because a Thanksgiving Offering has been reported in neither 1935 nor 1936. Oftentimes mission points make Thanksgiving Offerings, but these are reported as a part of the giving of the "mother" church. When no separation of amounts is given to officials at Barium, it is, of course, impossible to assign any part of the Thanksgiving Offering to the mission giving it.

The fact which stands out most eminently as you look over these many figures is that the largest number of "best" Offerings in the past 12 years was made in 1936. There were 108 churches or mission points to do this last fall, thus establishing new 12-year peaks and meriting unusual distinction. The "best" sums are clearly divided into three arrangements of years. The first covers the years of 1925, 1926 and 1927; the next division includes the years from 1928 to 1934, and the past three years are in a separate classification. In 1925, 1926 and 1927, 204 churches gave the greatest Offerings; from 1928-1934, 104 show the best responses, and 202 have given the largest Thanksgiving sums in the past three years.

According to years, the number of "best" sums are as follows: In 1925, 90 churches; in 1926, 42; in 1927, 72; in 1928, 20; in 1929, 26; in 1930, 29; in 1931, 10; in 1932, 6; in 1933, 13; in 1934, 37; in 1935, 57; in 1936, 108.

Please look at your church's record. If it was among the 108 that touched a new high in 1936, endeavor to establish a still higher peak in November of 1937. Find out exactly where your church stands, and lend your efforts toward making the "best" this fall. In many instances, a little extra effort on the part of the churches would send the total to a new peak and thus make the greatest Offering in 13 years. Officials at the Orphanage aren't superstitious; either, about that number "thirteen". If you think they are, try it and see.
